

Advancement Of Tax Bills

Sales, Use Tax Proposals Move Ahead in the Senate

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—A 26 million dollar a year increase in the sale tax and a modified version of a use tax bill moved ahead in the Missouri Senate last night.

The plan to increase the 2 per cent sales tax to 2½ per cent won first round approval in the first night session of the Senate after a long argument that lasted until after midnight. The vote was 17-8.

House Meets, Adopts Some Resolutions

No One Offers To Bring Measures Up for a Debate

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The Missouri House met today, 113 strong, adopted some courtesy resolutions, introduced a few guests, got $10 daily expense money and quit for the weekend.

Speaker Richard H. Ichord (D) of Texas County called the numbers of a dozen pending Senate bills but no one offered to bring one of them up for debate.

"These must be pretty bad bills," he said, "if none has a sponsor in the House."

Then the floor leader ordered adjournment until late Monday.

Yesterday the House averted a parliamentary trick designed to sink the one - defeated cigarette tax increase to still lower depths.

House attendance was only around 90 at the time because the calendar was cleared and the session was announced as short. Rep. E. J. Cantrell (D) of St. Louis County, a bitter opponent of the cigarette tax, attempted reconsideration of the measure.

If his motion had been brought to a vote and defeated, it would have meant that any other tries to reconsider the tax measure would need 105 votes—two-thirds of the House. Normally reconsideration only requires 79 votes—a simple majority.

Majority Leader Warren E. Hearnes (D) of Mississippi County made a substitute motion to adjourn. Moments later, Cantrell withdrew his motion after consulting with Rep. George D. Young (D) of Howard County, sponsor of the tax bill.

Asked later what he had said to get the motion withdrawn, Young said he only reminded Cantrell that a labor bill in which he was interested could be dealt with in the same way.

Airport Liquor Bill Defeated In the Senate

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The old airport liquor bill went down to defeat in the Missouri Senate again last night. But it was close.

The vote to move it into position for passage was 12-12, just one short of a majority. Similar legislation has failed repeatedly in past sessions.

As changed during a long debate at the Senate's first night session of the year, the bill would have permitted sale of liquor by the drink at both Lambert - St. Louis airport and at Kansas City's new jet age International Airport in Platte County.

Both are owned by the cities but are in unincorporated areas where present laws forbid sale by the drink.

The Senate also turned down an attempt to legalize TV giveaways, door prizes and other advertising gimmicks. Opponents said it would bring back theater "bank nights" and open the door to other kinds of lotteries. Sponsors said it would just legalize things already being done to promote business.

Union Charges Steel Makers In Violation

NEW YORK (AP)—The Steelworkers Union today charged the steel industry with violating the antitrust laws and labor relations laws and asked the government to investigate.

Arthur J. Goldberg, the union's general counsel, said law violations are involved in industry disclosures of plans it may invoke to deal with a possible July 1 industry strike.

Goldberg outlined his charges in letters to Atty. Gen. William Rogers and to Jerome D. Fenton, general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board.

The watered down use tax bill popped out of the ways and means committee on an 11-0 vote. Estimates of the revenue it would produce ranged from nothing to around 4 million dollars annually. It is now ready for floor debate.

The sales tax increase was introduced as a means of financing an expanded program of state aid for the school foundation program. A bill setting up the new state aid formula already has been passed and is pending before Gov. James T. Blair.

The foundation program, if fully financed, is estimated to cost around 26 million dollars a year—the same amount the sales tax increase would produce. The increase, however, is not specifically earmarked for schools.

Before putting the bill in position for passage, the Senate tacked on an amendment that would refer the proposal to the voters at the November, 1960 general election. Another would establish a bracket system for collecting it on this basis:

Purchases up to 21 cents would be tax free. From 21-50 cents it would be one cent. From 51-90 cents, two cents; from 91-$1.20, three cents; over $1.20 a flat 2½ per cent on full dollar amounts and the same one-two-three cent scale on fractional amounts.

An effort to knock off the referendum proposal was beaten down by a wide margin.

Another attempt to exempt all human food and any articles of clothing costing less than $20 also was defeated, 9-16, after Appropriations Chairman John W. Noble (D) of Kennett said that would cost the state 20 million dollars a year in revenue.

Sen. Albert M. Spradling (D) of Cape Girardeau said such a plan would require every grocer in the state to buy new cash registers.

Action on the use tax bill angered the ways and means chairman, Sen. Edward J. Hogan (D) of St. Louis. "They've exempted everything," he growled. "The bill is dead."

One amendment would exempt from the 2 per cent use tax any supplies, equipment or machinery bought outside the state for the manufacturing or processing of goods in Missouri and the equipment used by railroads and other public utilities.

Such a change had been sought by Trans World Airlines, the Chrysler Corp. and other big industries.

The other Senate committee change would exempt the use of motion picture film, tape and disc recordings and news wire services used in television and radio broadcasting.

Queries on Bidding Regulation Tuesday

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — A special House investigating committee today asked the highway commission to be prepared Tuesday to answer some detailed questions about its road bidding regulations.

Committee Chairman A. Basey Vanlandingham (D) of Boone County asked Chief Engineer Rex M. Whitton to be prepared to answer such questions as:

Who recommended the bidding regulation and when was it done?

Was any contractor involved in the plan to establish the regulation?

Did the commission ask the attorney general for an opinion on the regulation's legality?

Can you produce any records of contractor failures prior to the regulation's adoption? Any since?

The questioned regulation provides that no contractor can successfully bid on a project of more than a million dollars unless he already has completed a contract of not less than $250,000.

Rep. R. J. King (R) of St. Louis County, a member of the committee, offered the first resolution because, he said, it appeared to him that an exclusive road bidding club has been established, so exclusive that just eight contracting firms now get 50 per cent of the big highway construction jobs in Missouri.

The House modified his resolution somewhat but adopted the idea of checking up on the commission. The special committee will hold an organization session

Herter Plans Major Bid For Support

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter plans a major bid for public support and understanding tonight on the eve of his trip to the East-West Geneva conference on Germany.

Indications are he will not spring any big surprises in American policy.

The speech will be broadcast and telecast at 8 p.m., EST.

Herter is expected to stress what he regards as the reasonableness of U.S. plans for a peaceful solution to the German crisis.

He is prepared to say that the proposals to be presented to the Soviets at the foreign ministers parley starting Monday will provide a sound framework — if the Reds sincerely want to negotiate.

At the same time, he is ready to renew assurances that the Allies will not abandon West Berlin to the Communists just because Moscow demands that the Western Powers get out.

It will be Herter's first major appearance before the public since he took over as secretary of state from John Foster Dulles, and he wants to win the public's confidence.

The secretary leaves Friday afternoon for the Geneva meeting with the foreign ministers of Britain, France and the Soviet Union. The conference may last a month.

Herter will stop off at Bonn for lunch with German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer Saturday noon. He will go on to Geneva that evening.

'Joe' Imhauser Memorial Fund Is Established

The death of Joseph Charles Imhauser Monday has resulted in a movement among his many friends to create a memorial fund in which Mrs. Imhauser and her three children will be beneficiaries.

Shortly after his death, due to drowning in a farm pond near Beaman, friends came up with the idea of the memorial fund, and the three Sedalia banks, the Sedalia Bank and Trust Co., the Third National Bank, and the Union Savings Bank, were contacted and agreed to handle the Joe Imhauser Memorial Fund.

Other Sedalia business firms have agreed to accept contributions to the fund. As of noon Thursday, Broadway Lanes, Bacon's Conoco Station, Bing's No. 2 supermarket and the Pacific Cafe have agreed to accept contributions at their establishments. Other establishments are being contacted.

Ike, Winnie Double Up On Golf Cart

Then They Switch To Helicopter For Aerial Inspection

WASHINGTON (AP) — Picture Sir Winston Churchill zipping around President Eisenhower's farm in a baby-blue electric golf cart. There's a cigar clinched in the Britisher's teeth and he's wearing a cowboy hat.

Picture Eisenhower driving the small cart — and it sagging a bit to the right under the Churchillian bulk as they whip over the gravel roads.

That was the picture Wednesday afternoon as the 84-year-old former prime minister of Britain and his host toured the Eisenhower acres at Gettysburg, Pa., under a blazing hot sun.

Later they switched to a Marine Corps helicopter for an aerial inspection of the historic Gettysburg battlefield where in 1863 Union and Confederate forces engaged in one of the classic conflicts of all time. The Eisenhower estate is at the edge of the battle site.

It was by helicopter that the President and Sir Winston traveled to the farm from the White House lawn and the British visitor, who had made one earlier whirlbird flight, obviously enjoyed the trip.

Churchill clutched his gold-tipped cane as he eased into the golf buggy alongside his chauffeur, the smiling President.

The first stop was a big cattle barn. There Eisenhower proudly pointed out his herd.

"They are Black Angus, all of them," The president told his guest. "They're Scotch Cattle. We also have some Nurse cows. These — Black Angus don't give enough milk."

At Recognition Dinner

Cloyce Wilsons Are Presented Award for Farm Achievements

Mr. and Mrs. Cloyce Wilson, Route 3, Sedalia, were presented the Missouri Bankers Achievement Award for outstanding accomplishments on their farm at the Recognition Dinner for Farm and Home Planning Families held Wednesday night at the Broadway Presbyterian Church.

Receiving the Missouri Bankers Association Progress Awards were: Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Egbert, Green Ridge; Mr. and Mrs. Loy Smith, Green Ridge; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Alt, Route 1, Sedalia; and Mr. and Mrs. Gale Van Slyke, Windsor. All of the awards were presented by Frank Mehl, representing the Missouri Bankers Association.

Farm Home Planning is to try to work out a system to get more efficiency and provide better living and better farming, Lloyd Lewellen, Pettis County associate Extension agent, explained, and the awards are for doing an excellent job in this planning and producing.

The speaker of the evening was R. B. Elling, from the Livestock and Meat Board of Chicago, who was introduced by Merle Vaughan county agent.

"Home and Farm Planning or balanced farming, is a wonderful thing," said Elling, "but a balanced community is of the utmost importance and that is what you have here, in having the people in town included in this meeting of farm families."

Collapse of Building On Workmen Below

No Warning; At Least 1 Man Dead

Steel Roof Girder Caves In; Only Few Men Escape

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP) — A large industrial building being erected by scores of workers collapsed with an ear-shattering roar shortly before 11 a.m. today. At least one man was killed, a number injured and an estimated 20 trapped in the wreckage.

Hundreds of rescue workers rushed to the scene and tore at the mounds of twisted steel girders and splintered planking with bare hands in an effort to free trapped laborers.

For a time shrieks and cries arose from the heap of rubble, lying on the floor of the one-story building.

Giant cranes also were sped to the site to help heavier segments and permit rescue teams to crawl underneath.

Ambulances roared away at frequent intervals with injured. Eight or more were known to be in hospitals.

The building was under construction at the Westbury Industrial Park about 30 miles east of New York City on Long Island. The steel framework had been erected and roofing and brick finishing work were under way. The structure, 200 feet long and 150 feet wide, was to house an electronics firm.

A steel girder in the roof was believed to have given way, causing the avalanche of steel and wood to cascade downward.

As many as 100 workmen were believed to have been on the job, some on the roof.

When the crash came with little or no warning, there was a wild scramble for life. Some escaped. One group of 15 men had left the building an instant before the collapse.

Al Long of Islip Terrace, at work on a nearby building, gave this description:

"All I saw was men running out from under the thing as it fell. Some made it but most didn't. The entire roof just fell over."

Another witness, Verge Abbatello of Westbury, also standing nearby, said:

"I heard a tremendous roar and turned around. There was thick smoke rising up like a bomb. I heard a guy scream."

There was no fire and Abbatello apparently mistook dust for smoke.

Astaire Steals Show

TV Oldtimers Share Emmy Awards With Newcomers

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Fred Astaire and his first big show for television danced nimbly away Wednesday night with every Emmy within reach.

"An Evening With Fred Astaire" had been nominated for nine Emmys — and won them all. But television's oldtimers took their share of the 42 awards — among them Jack Benny, Loretta Young, Dinah Shore, Perry Como and Edward R. Murrow.

Omnibus, the Hallmark Hall of Fame, Playhouse 90 and the Alcoa-Goodyear theater were winners among the big programs. Among TV's gunslinger adventures' the choice was Maverick.

But the night's star was the 60-year-old Astaire, who climbed to the stage so many times to accept the TV Academy's Emmys that for the last award — for the outstanding program of the year — there was no one on stage to take the presentation.

Actor Robert Young hurried down the aisle of the Moulin Rouge night club to give the Golden Statuette to Astaire.

"It's a big night for dear old dad," Astaire breathlessly told a nationwide television audience which saw the 90-minute show over NBC-TV.

That just about summed up the 11th Annual TV Emmy Awards show.

Astaire or his show won for most outstanding single program; best special musical or variety show, one hour long; best single performance by an actor; best direction of a single musical or variety program; best writing of a single musical or variety program; best live camera work; best art director; best musical contribution and best choreography.

Jury Finds Montague Is Innocent

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A Circuit Court jury took only 58 minutes last night to find Charles E. Montague innocent of the mutilation slaying of his wife because of insanity and to render a verdict that confines him to a maximum security state mental institution.

The all-male jury in the court of Judge William E. Buder held that Montague was "innocent for the sole reason that he was insane at the time of the commission of the crime and he has not permanently recovered."

Under Missouri law, that means Montague must be committed to the state hospital at Fulton. Judge Buder will order him sent there within the next 10 days.

Montague's wife, Ruth Ann, 34, was found strangled to death in her car Jan. 7. The car was parked in front of a house where she had attended a sorority party the night before. Her legs had been punctured and slashed.

Montague displayed no emotion when he heard the verdict. He was taken to city jail. He had been confined in the St. Louis State Hospital before the trial.

A psychiatrist was the only defense witness. Dr. E. H. Parsons testified that Montague is incurably ill, has been since 1944, and will need medication and hospitalization for the rest of his life.

It was brought out under cross examination that the pudgy defendant had threatened to kill his wife and hated all women because of a belief they wanted to dominate him.

The state suggested that jealousy was the prime motive. A witness, James Wingman, 23, a soldier who once was a co-worker of Mrs. Montague's, said they had exchanged affectionate letters. He met her four times shortly before she was killed.

Montague was arrested when police found a pair of golden earrings in his possession. They appeared to be the same ones shown in a picture of Mrs. Montague taken at the party. There were no earrings on her body.

The bride wore an ankle-length gown of lace covered satin made with a scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. A bustle back was formed by a large lace covered butterfly bow. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a small pearl crown; her only jewelry was pearl earrings, a gift of the groom. She carried a white orchid on her prayerbook.

Miss Beverly Couhig of Colorado Springs, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Her dress was of mauve colored organza over taffeta, made with bouffant sleeves and a picture neckline. She carried a colonial bouquet of purple violets and pink carnations.

James Couhig, Sedalia, brother of the groom, was the best man. The mother of the bride wore a navy suit with chartreuse accessories. Her corsage was of cymbidium orchids. The mother of the groom wore a turquoise suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

After the ceremony, the immediate families attended the wedding breakfast. On April 10 the rehearsal dinner was held at the Lucerne Lobster House in Boston.

The bride, a graduate of Sacred Heart High School, class of 1956, attended Saint Mary College, Xavier, Kan. The groom, also a 1956 graduate of Sacred Heart, attended Creighton University in Omaha, Neb. The couple will now reside in Ayer, Mass., where the groom is presently stationed in the Army.

Miss Hoard Becomes Bride Of Carl Bremer

Miss Bessie Ellen Hoard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buell Hoard of Green Ridge, became the bride of Carl Lloyd Bremer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bremer, Smithton, on Friday, April 17, at 7 o'clock in the evening, with the Rev. E. O. Larier, pastor of the Camp Branch Baptist Church, performing the double ring ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

The candles were lighted by Keith Bremer, Smithton, brother of the bridegroom and Ray Hoard, Green Ridge, brother of the bride.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a dress of white nylon acetate lace with fashioned fitted bodice accented with a velvet ribbon through loops of lace ending with a bow with streamers. The gathered skirt was of waltz length, and the short jacket was of nylon lace. She carried a white Bible to which was attached a white orchid.

Mrs. Robert Hoard, 1311 South Murray, sister-in-law of the bride, as matron of honor wore a dress of pink nylon acetate lace with gathered skirt and fitted bodice with velvet ribbon looped through lace with a streamer bow in the back.

Robert Bremer, Wichita, Kan., brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Both mothers wore navy blue dresses with matching accessories and their corsages were of pink roses.

A reception was held at 8 o'clock after the ceremony. The two doorways were festooned with pink and white crepe paper from which hung white wedding bells. Also suspended from the chandelier in the dining room was a white wedding bell encircled with pink and white crepe paper streamers above the three-tier wedding cake on the bride's table.

Serving were Miss Carol McCune, Sedalia; Miss Judy Miller, and Miss Myrna Case, both of Green Ridge. Mrs. Jerry Perdue of Green Ridge presided over the guest book and Miss Donna Martin and Miss Anna Louise Stevens, Green Ridge, were in charge of the gifts.

The bride is a graduate of Green

Freezing Asparagus
Select young tender stalks with compact tips. Sort according to thickness of stalk.

Wash asparagus thoroughly and cut or break off and discard tough parts of the stalks. Leave spears in lengths to fit the package or cut in two-inch lengths.

Heat stalks in boiling water according to thickness of stalk: small stalks, 2 minutes; medium stalks, 3 minutes and large stalks, 4 minutes.

Cool promptly in cold water and drain.

Pack into containers, leaving no head space. When packing spears, alternate tips and stem ends, in containers that are wider at the top than bottom, pack asparagus with tips down. Seal and freeze.

Freezing Mushrooms

Mushrooms must be free from spots and decay. Sort according to size. Wash thoroughly in cold water. Trim off ends of stems. If mushrooms are larger than one inch across, slice them or cut them into quarters. Mushrooms may be steamed or heated in fat in a fry pan.

To Steam — Mushrooms to be steamed have better color if given anti-darkening treatment first. Dip for five minutes in a solution containing one teaspoon of lemon juice or 1½ teaspoons citric acid to a pint of water. Then steam: whole mushrooms (not larger than one inch across) five minutes, buttons or quarters 3½ minutes and slices three minutes. Cool promptly in cold water and drain.

To Heat in Fry Pan — Heat small quantities of mushrooms in table fat in an open fry pan until almost done.

Cool in air or set pan in which mushrooms were cooked in cold water.

Pack into containers, leaving ½ inch head space. Seal and freeze. Mushrooms contain valuable nutrients — protein, calcium, iron, thiamine, riboflavin and niacin. They may be used as a meat substitute.

Negotiations Enter More Serious Stage

NEW YORK (AP) — Steel industry negotiations enter a more serious stage today with disclosure that the industry already is mapping strategy on dealing with a possible July 1 strike.

David J. McDonald, Steelworkers Union president, and R. Conrad Cooper, chief negotiator for U.S. Steel Corp. and the industry, agreed to quit airing differences at joint meetings with reporters after they'd mixed it up a bit at such a session Wednesday.

Cooper confirmed reports that the industry is working on a plan to counter any union divide-and-conquer strike move.

He said that if the union should strike only one or a few industry producers, the others left operating might, under the plan, share any excess profits with the strike-bound firms.

Cooper also hinted steelmakers are considering shutting down in a common front if any one or few are struck. He said the industry is considering all eventualities while hoping to reach a peace pact with McDonald ahead of present contract expirations June 30.

While both Cooper and McDonald reflected the surface cordiality that has marked their joint meetings with newsmen since negotiations opened Tuesday, the union president made it clear that he was unhappy with the industry's mutual aid strike plan. He accused the industry of provoking strike talk.

This led to an exchange between Cooper and McDonald, still cordial yet obviously pointed, as to which side has been responsible for past steel strikes.

Evidence of growing tension was also reflected in the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. and Kaiser Steel Co. negotiations with the union. Both hit snags and quit early on what McDonald later described as "procedural difficulties." Both bargaining sessions were due to resume today on a calmer note.

Explosion Shatters Coal Mine Tipples

JELLICO, Tenn. (AP) — Two explosions in the business district of this coal town on the Kentucky state line shattered two coal tipples in the Louisville & Nashville railroad yards early today. The tipples and coal were set afire, but no injuries were reported.

It was the latest of several incidents of violence reported since a strike of United Mine Workers members has idled much of the east Tennessee coal industry.

Police said, however, that they had no clues to the identity of the person who set the blasts, and saw no one at the scene.

The blasts came less than 24 hours after 11 rifle shots were fired from ambush at a strip coal mine near here. Nobody was wounded.

John Deal, operator of the strip mine, said the shots were fired at him and four workmen, who ducked into a large iron bucket on a power shovel.

Beta Sigma Phi Chapters Celebrate Founder's Day

The four Beta Sigma Phi sorority chapters in Sedalia celebrated their Founder's Day at the Hotel Bothwell on Saturday, May 2, and Mrs. Carl Yates was installed as the new president of the Sorority City Council in an impressive candlelight ceremony by Mrs. Bill Arnold. Other officers installed were: Vice-president, Mrs. Mary Margaret Sellers; recording secretary, Mrs. Carol Rice; and treasurer, Mrs. Bonnie Schumaker.

Outgoing officers are: Mrs. Martha Burkholder, president; Mrs. Betty Landon, vice-president; Mrs. Shirley Crouch, secretary; and Mrs. Lucy Turner, treasurer.

The Founder's Day pledge was given by Mrs. Mary Pitcairn, and Mrs. Norma Perrin sang the international prize winning song which was written by a Beta Sigma Phi member in Germany.

The highlight of the evening came when Mrs. Lacy Belt presented the engraved gavel to Mrs. Rosemary Cummings, past president of Beta Tau, for the chapter's attendance to City Council meetings and functions on a percentage basis through the year.

The message from Walter Ross, who founded the first chapter in Abilene, Kan., was delivered by Mrs. Lacy Belt. She told of all the different local chapters, their activities and projects which included the binding of the scrapbook, Christmas caroling, Chamber of Commerce Membership survey, Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets, clothing two children for school, style show, selling pot holders, adopting grandmothers, giving money to the storm warning fund, assisting in the Heart Fund, floats in the Christmas parade and assisting at Crippled Children's Center. Other projects were the Kidnap Coffee, selling Popsicle molds, giving television and washing machine to a needy family, selling English toffee, assisted in Civil Defense survey, ice cream social, cards to residents of Buena Vista, Pancake Day for which proceeds were given to Mercy Hospital, purchase of greeting testing cards for children who cannot read, selling candy, and giving the Order of the Rose during the past year to two members who have been in the sorority 15 years, Mrs. Carl Schrader and Mrs. Mildred Sutherland.

The dinner opened with members singing the national anthem, with Mrs. John Marquess as accompanist. The opening ritual was said, after which the Beta Sigma Phi grace was given by Mrs. Florence Andrara.

A welcome to the pledges was given by Mrs. Lucy Turner, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Bill Burkholder, who was ill. Mrs. Turner also introduced the guests. The 28th anniversary speech was given by Mrs. Ira Delarquette.

A gift for Mrs. Burkholder from the Council will be presented later.

Beautiful decorations were used for the banquet with the number "28" encircled with a garland of flowers on the wall forming a background for the head table. The table was centered with a black and gold crested vase holding two dozen yellow roses, the sorority flower. On the other tables were black torches cleverly made by using bobbins upside down and painted black and light bulbs painted gold. Xi Omega Chapter was in charge of the decoration, with Mrs. Bill Padgett as chairman, assisted by Miss Lois Gordon and Miss Grace Farley. Flowers were used with gold banners running down the center of the table and black musical notes placed on them.

Place cards, made by members of Beta Tau Chapter, were black musical notes adorned with gold glitter and the names were beautifully lettered by Mrs. Maxine Wendt. The programs, which were in the form of torches using the black and gold color scheme, were made by members of Epsilon Beta Chapter and Phi Phi Chapter. The theme of the program throughout the world was: "Song of Our Torch."

By the piano was a large torch with the light flickering all during the evening.

Following the banquet and ceremony installation members, husbands, dates and guests enjoyed dancing with music furnished by Russell Maag of the Hi-Fi and Science Center.

Now He Believes

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — Grocery clerk Ken Bridges walked under a ladder leaning against a jewelry store. The ladder collapsed and a doctor took 12 stitches in sewing up the gash in Bridge's scalp.

"I'm a believer," Bridges said later.

Request For Water Funds Made Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Requests for more than 42 million dollars for construction or planning of 21 water projects in Kansas and Missouri for the year beginning July 1 were made before a House Appropriations subcommittee today.

Appropriations suggested totaled $42,214,000. President Eisenhower's budget had recommended $38,338,000 for 13 of the projects. Congress appropriated $37,480,000 last year for planning or construction on 15 of the projects.

A delegation that included representatives of the Mississippi Valley Assn., the Mo.-Ark. Basins Flood Control and Conservation Assn., and of communities in Kansas and Missouri, made the plea for the funds.

Earlier this week, delegations appeared before House and Senate appropriations subcommittees, urging that 25 million dollars a year or more be appropriated for 15 years to complete authorized projects in the Kansas River Basin.

The group today asked funds for these projects in the Kansas River Basin, Marais des Cygnes and Osage basins in Kansas and Missouri and for the Missouri and Arkansas River Basin projects for next fiscal year (budget recommended amounts in parentheses):

Kansas River projects — Tuttle Creek Reservoir, $18,345,000 for continued construction ($18,345,000); Topeka, $2,500,000 ($2,500,000); Manhattan, $45,000 ($45,000); Kansas City, Kan. and Mo., $300,000 (none); Marysville planning, $26,000 (none); Hays, preliminary survey, $25,000 (none).

Marais des Cygnes and Osage Basins—Pomona Reservoir, $1,400,000 ($1,400,000); Ottawa, $1,400,000; Pomme de Terre Reservoir, $15,000 ($15,000); Kasinger Bluff Reservoir, $300,000 planning ($150,000).

Missouri River—Missouri River, Omaha to Kansas City, channel improvement, $2,800,000 ($2,800,000); Kansas City to mouth of river, channel improvement, $5,000,000 ($3,475,000); agricultural levees, Omaha to St. Louis, $1,000,000 (none).

Arkansas River—Elk City, $5,000,000; Cedar Point Reservoir, $25,000 planning (none); Marion Reservoir, $25,000 planning (none); Council Grove Reservoir, $300,000 construction (none); Strawn Reservoir, John Redmond Dam, $1,300,000 ($3,000,000).

On Disability Freeze

Nash Outlines New Features Of Social Security Program

"The Clarence Gash family, of Higginsville, illustrates many of the new Social Security features," Thomas F. Nash, manager of the Sedalia district office said today.

Gash is the first person in Lafayette County to have his disability freeze changed to the cash payment status. His wife and two youngest children are also entitled to benefits because of a recent change in the law. By filing in advance of age 50, the family is assured of receiving their checks at the earliest possible time.

A team of medical experts determined that Gash's heart disease was so severe that he was physically unable to hold any kind of employment. He filed a claim on April 22, 1957, for a disability freeze. He had been disabled for over six months. His social security status was "frozen" as of Aug. 16, 1956, which is the date he became so physically disabled he couldn't do any kind of work.

His trucking business had been the basis for maximum social security credits. Since Gash had not yet become 50 years of age, the freeze simply protected him and his family against a decrease in the amount of social security that would be payable later.

On April 10, 1959, Clarence celebrated his 50th birthday. This meant that he was now able to draw his own cash disability benefit. Tom and Linda, his children, are under 18. Their support was diminished by Clarence's inability to work, so a payment can be made for them. Juanita qualifies for mother's benefits because she has the children in her care. The mother and children would not have been entitled before the 1958 changes to the Social Security Law.

Family benefits are limited to 80 per cent of the earnings on which the claim is paid. Although his birthday is on the tenth, benefits will be for the entire month. Since no checks are paid in advance they were delivered on May 4 for April. When the baby, Linda, reaches age 18, both her check and her mother's check will stop. When Juanita reaches retirement age (62 for women), she'll receive either her own benefit based on work she's done under Social Security, or a benefit based on Clarence's work. A wife who has worked long enough to be insured automatically receives the higher benefit, but not both her own and a wife's.

All social security information is confidential. The Gash family have given their permission for using these details.

Guilt Feeling Brings Tale Of Near-Killing

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Wayne Ellsworth Newton of Kansas City needn't have had such a guilty conscience about a man he thought he killed near Palm Beach more than 32 years ago.

When he was picked up by Kansas City police Monday as a fugitive from the municipal farm, the 54-year-old Newton revealed he shot a man in February of 1927. He said the man was identified in news accounts as John Doscher.

A check of old Florida newspaper files and hospital records showed a John Arnold Doscher was waylaid in a truck between West Palm Beach and Lake Worth, Fla., on Feb. 12, 1927, robbed, shot and left for dead.

Doscher was treated at a hospital and discharged eight days later.

William D. Shields, former police chief at Lake Worth, remembers that Doscher was employed by a Fort Pierce, Fla., automobile firm and was shot by two youths who never were caught.

No one in Fort Pierce knows what became of Doscher.

Newton is in the Kansas City jail awaiting return to the municipal farm, where he was serving seven months on a conviction of Saturday they will be in downtown Sedalia, visiting stores, offices and other places of business.

Mrs. Charles Sebek is president of the local group, which netted more than $200 from sales made last year. This money is used to assist veterans and the families of veterans, and to make regular contributions to the Veterans Administration hospitals in Kansas City and Excelsior Springs. Three Pettis County veterans' families were helped at Christmastime.

Last year, ten girls sold more than 3,000 carnations. This year there will be about 15 girls working, and more carnations have been ordered.

Woolworth Pays Tribute To Newspapers of US, Canada

Special tribute was paid to F. W. Woolworth Co. by the newspapers of the United States and Canada "in recognition of its consistent and successful use of daily newspapers as an advertising medium," at the recent annual American Newspaper Publishers' Association in New York attended by 1,500 newspaper publishers and management executives.

The Sedalia Democrat-Capital was represented at this session by Business Manager K. U. Love and Mrs. Love.

An engraved bronze plaque was presented to Robert C. Kirkwood, president of the variety chain store, by Russ Stewart, vice-chairman of the Bureau of Advertising. Stewart, vice-president and general manager of the Chicago Sun-Times, pointed out that within the past two years Woolworth's newspaper advertising had progressed from a modest amount of "experimentation" to become one of the biggest newspaper advertisers in its field.

Mr. Kirkwood, in accepting the plaque, expressed the company's gratitude for the cooperation of the newspapers in making its big move into newspaper advertising successful.

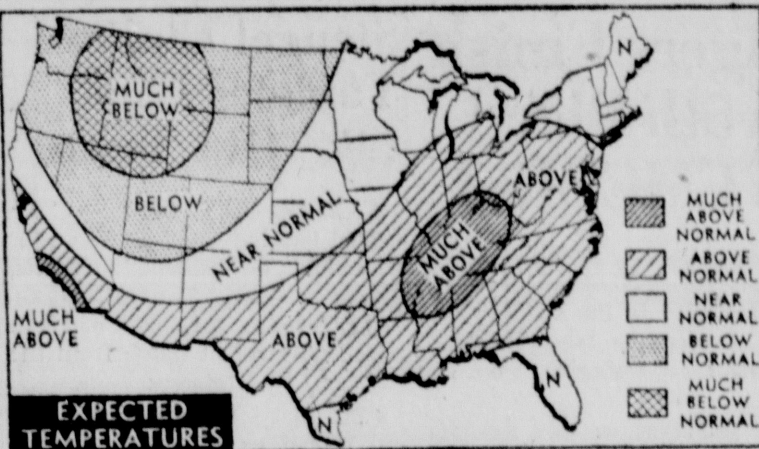

"Starting as we did almost from scratch," said Mr. Kirkwood, "and reaching the point where we used almost 10,000,000 lines last year, it is remarkable that our growing pains were as trifling as they were. Unquestionably, they would have been more severe had it not been for the splendid cooperation we received from the newspapers publishers of the country."

The 10,000,000 figure compares with 400,000 lines used in 1956. Woolworth is now using 156 newspapers throughout the United States on a regular weekly basis. Its current newspaper budget is store, by far the largest in company history. He predicted that publishers can look forward to an increasing amount of Woolworth lineage keeping pace with expanding volume of Woolworth sales.

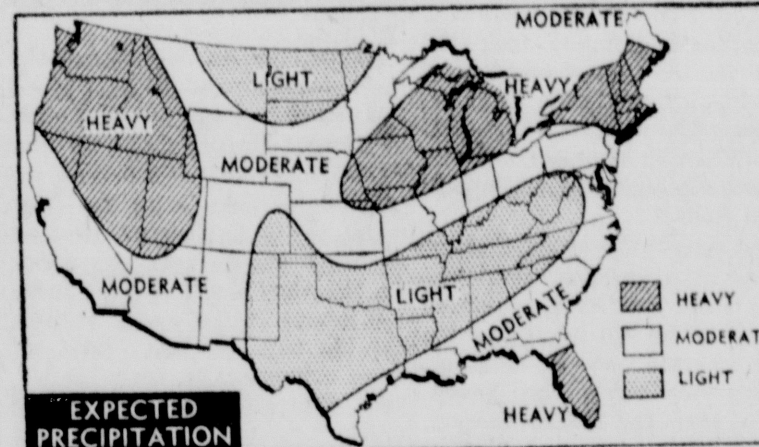

In line with Woolworth's expanding advertising program the Sedalia store, 224 South Ohio, presents the first in a series of advertisements in the Sedalia Democrat and Capital to appear during the next twelve months. The Sedalia store has been in operation for more than 50 years on Ohio street.

Merry May

Weather maps below show the U. S. Weather Bureau's 30-day forecast for May. It is not a specific forecast in the usual sense, but an ESTIMATE of average temperatures and precipitation for the period.

Temperatures will range from normal to above over the greater part of the nation during May, according to Weather Bureau.

Precipitation outlook for May shows heavy rainfall in limited areas, along with large bands of light-to-moderate amounts.

Asparagus Beetles In Most Areas

By Merle Vaughan
County Extension Agent

Asparagus beetles are thick in most asparagus patches, and controls are becoming necessary. Best control in the home garden is malathion dust or spray. Use four teaspoons of 25 per cent malathion wettable powder in one gallon of water, or dust with a 4 per cent asparagous dust. Do not cut asparagus within three days of using the insecticide.

Pea aphids are also damaging garden peas, particularly in the southern sections of the state. Best control is to spray with malathion as mentioned above.

Since it's that time when insects will continually be working in gardens, keep in mind the best general purpose garden spray mixture consists of four teaspoons of 25 per cent malathion wettable powder, one tablespoon of 50 per cent methoxychlor wettable powder, one tablespoon of captan, and one tablespoon of zineb. The malathion and methoxychlor will take care of most insect pests, and the captan and zineb will control most diseases. Spray regularly every seven days but do not spray edible portions of vegetables within seven days of harvest.

A copy of these recommendations can be obtained at the Extension Office.

It's time, too, to start spraying roses on a regular basis. To make your own rose spray, mix one

Grand Jury Indicts Four White Youths

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — A grand jury of 18 white men indicted four white youths Wednesday for raping a slender Negro co-ed.

The jurors heard witnesses — including the 19-year-old victim — for nearly seven hours before filing into a hushed courtroom and handing their presentment to Circuit Judge W. May Walker.

Only once before in Florida history has a rape case drawn such wide attention. That was in 1949 when four Negroes were accused of raping a 17-year-old married white girl.

The courtroom gallery was almost filled with Negroes yesterday — many of whom had kept their segregated seats all day — but there was no demonstration when Walker announced the indictments had been returned. White spectators also were silent.

The four will be arraigned Friday and a trial date set. They are Patrick G. Scarborough, 20, Air Force man on leave from an Alaska base; Willton T. Collinsworth, 24, married telephone line-man; David Ervin Beagles, 18, a high school student; and Ollie Stoutamire, 16, a distant relative of Police Chief Frank Stoutamire of Tallahassee.

They have confessed finding the victim, her escort and another Negro couple parked early Saturday morning after a college dance, taking her to a lonely spot at gunpoint and raping her by turns.

Rape can bring the death penalty but never in Florida history has a white man gone to the electric chair for assaulting a Negro. Several Negroes have died for raping white women.

None of the four Negroes accused in the 1949 case was executed.

Running Smoothly, Sorrels May Be Trouble for Taylor

Columbia Vet Hopes to End Ken's Reign

Capable Ken Taylor, Missouri's defending modified stock car racing champion, appears to be headed for an unprecedented third straight title in the Central Missouri Racing Association this year. Veterans like Moberly's Torch Aleshire, Columbia's Walt Sorrels, and the Hibbard brothers aren't conceding anything, however.

On Saturday night the Slater speedster will be out to pad his current point lead and win his third consecutive feature race on the fast, high-bank Thunderbowl Speedway oval.

By winning twice and finishing second in last week's three CMRA runnings, Taylor grabbed the point lead from Moberly's Torch Aleshire and built up a comfortable lead over the rest of the field.

Taylor's Buick powered B & D Special has never looked quicker, but he's still not a sure-thing for another crown. One of his primary obstacles could prove to be the highly regarded Columbia veteran, Walter Sorrels — commonly known as "Flyin' Sam the Junkman."

Sorrels missed the CMRA's first race this season and then had trouble keeping his car in competition after he did start. Now Sam is smiling because his Pontiac powered modified is rolling as well as any. After five unsuccessful efforts, Sorrels finally got the checkered flag last Sunday night when he copied the feature at Marshall in a run-away.

Last season Sorrels was the fifth ranking driver in the CMRA with 5,685 points. He was the point champion in 1956 and in 1957 he wound up sixth.

One of the greatest showmen and drivers ever to race in the CMRA, Sorrels holds more track records than anyone else. At all three CMRA tracks — Sedalia, Marshall and Moberly — he has established the fastest one-lap time ever recorded.

Sorrels started in CMRA racing in 1955 and has become one of the circuit's favorite performers. When he won the point championship in 1956, he took 11 consecutive features at the start of the season at Marshall.

If any of the circuit's drivers rate the reputation of being "hard luck" competitors, Sorrels would come first. In modified stock car competition at the Missouri State Fair he has been a favorite of the crowd for three straight years. Each time he was the man to beat in the entire field, but each time his car failed the will of his foot. Twice it was mechanical trouble, once a flat tire.

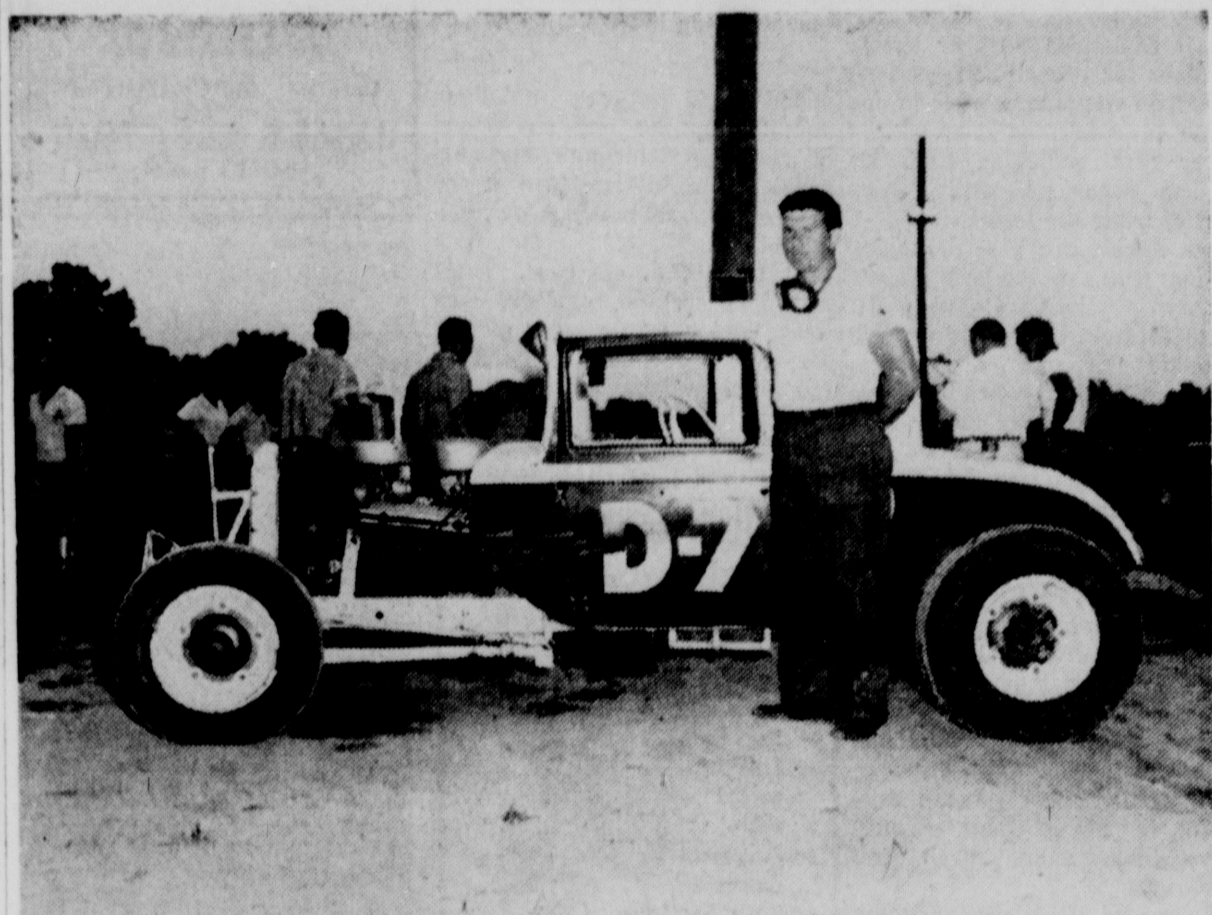

At Sedalia's Thunderbowl he has constantly been plagued by misfortune. As recently as Saturday night the pattern was repeated. He had won the trophy dash after starting third and looked like the man to beat, but in the fast heat he tangled with Ross Hibbard and Torch Aleshire on the northwest turn. He was forced to pull out and return to Columbia for repairs.

Sorrels actually got started in jalousies in 1951. Since then he has taken more than 100 trophies and a fair share of the winnings. The 30-year-old veteran is a stubby 5-8, and weighs 175 pounds. He and his wife, Dorothy, have three children — Susan, 7; Mark, 6; and a month-old baby boy.

Sorrels' car is owned by Marvin Reeder and Dean Hathman of Columbia. It's a Chevrolet of 1931 vintage which is powered by a new Pontiac engine. Last season this trio started with a 1956 Pontiac and since have gone through eight blocks, innumerable rods, inserts, pistons, cams and cranks.

Walt is a graduate of Hickman High in Columbia. His hobby, besides racing, is bowling. He started racing for kicks and says beating Jud Larson, now of Indianapolis fame, in a head-to-head duel in a heat race at Marshall three years ago was his greatest racing thrill.

The nickname "Junkman" comes from his business. He's a late model auto salvage dealer. Racing fans from the entire CMRA circuit agree on one thing: When Sorrels comes to race, he comes to win.

WALTER SORRELS IS READY TO give Ken Taylor, defending CMRA point champion and current leader, and other top notch drivers a run for the money. Better known as "Flyin' Sam the Junkman," the Columbia veteran won his first feature of the season Sunday night and will be out to make it two-straight at Sedalia's Thunderbowl Speedway this Saturday night. Above, Sorrels is pictured with his Pontiac powered modified.

One Run Can Be Vital In Pennant Race

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ever wonder just how important one-run defeats can be in a pennant race? Ask Solly Hemus. Without 'em, his St. Louis Cardinals could be first in the National League. With 'em, they're last.

Don't shrug it off. Sure, Los Angeles, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh could be leading the league, too, by reversing their one-run losses. But the weight of those lone-run defeats hangs heaviest on the Cardinals.

St. Louis has played 22 games. Half of them have been decided by one run. They've been handed half of their 16 defeats by that margin, and have gained half of their six victories the same way.

The Cards gave Hemus, their rookie manager, a tough time again Wednesday night, coming from behind with four runs in the eighth that proved just enough for an 8-7 victory at Philadelphia. They had lost by the same score to the Phillies Tuesday night.

For the record, while the Cards are 3-8 in one-run decisions, Milwaukee is 4-3, Cincinnati 3-4, San Francisco 4-2, Los Angeles 4-3, Chicago 4-5, Philadelphia 5-4 and Pittsburgh 5-3.

Milwaukee's first-place Braves stayed that way with a one-run victory Wednesday, beating Los Angeles 5-4. The Chicago Cubs beat Pittsburgh 3-0 on Dave Hillman's two-hitter. Cincinnati and San Francisco, tied for second, a game back of the Braves, were idle.

In the American League, the New York Yankees won two straight for the first time in a dozen games, winning 7-4 at Kansas City. Baltimore spilled first-place Cleveland 6-5. Washington rapped the Chicago White Sox 6-4 and Boston belted Detroit 17-6.

Stan Musial's first home run of the season—the 399th of his career — triggered the Cardinals' winning eighth. Joe Cunningham also ripped a two-run pinch double in the rally against losing reliever Jack Meyer (3-2).

The Braves, held to an unearned run for six innings by Gene Snyder and reliever Johnny Klippstein, came from behind on Johnny Logan's two-run single in the seventh and RBI singles by Ed Mathews and pinchhitter Wes Covington in a two-run eighth. Art Fowler (2-2) was the loser. Bob Giggie gained his first major league victory in his first decision with two-innings of hitless, shutout relief.

Hillman, 31, a right-hander with only a pair of singles in his first shutout. Harvey Haddix lost his first in three decisions, with a walk. Bobby Thomson's double and George Althman's single putting it away in a two-run second.

More Fans to Turn Out for Campanella

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Eighty-thousand or more fans, plus the New York Yankees and the Los Angeles Dodgers propose to turn out tonight to give Camp a break.

Campy is Roy Campanella, whose brilliant baseball career was wrecked and his body partially paralyzed in an automobile accident a year and a half ago.

The occasion is a benefit for the ex-Dodger catcher between two old rivals, the Yankees of American League dominance, and the Dodgers, nee Brooklyn Bums, of the National League.

Eighty thousand or more tickets have already been sold. The Dodger front office said today.

Memorial Coliseum can handle about 94,600 baseball fans.

Campy himself will be on hand to take a bow and say a few words.

Tigers Finish In 5th Place In CMC Meet

Coach Forest Arnall's Smith-Cotton Tigers finished a disappointing fifth in the Central Missouri Conference track meet at Jefferson City—scoring only one first.

Big Bill Poynter was the gold medal winner for the Bengals. The three-sport senior uncorked a prodigious 51'9" heave in the shot to score an easy victory.

Columbia's Kewpies took the crown for the second consecutive year, nipping runner-up Hannibal 45½-40½. The Jefferson City Jays were third with 36 points, followed by Smith-Cotton's 27-5/6; Fulton's 22 and Rolla's 3.

Two Central Missouri Conference records were broken. Jefferson City's Grant Stauffer was clocked in :52.7 in the 440 to shatter the mark of :52.7 set by Missouri Military Academy's Jim Bushyhead in 1930. The Fulton Hornets, winning their only event, set a new CMC mark in the 880-yard relay with a time 1:34.0—one second better than the old mark.

Robinson Angry With Various Promoters

NE WYORK (AP) — Ray Robinson, boxing's angry man, isn't too angry to listen to bids of various promoters for a middleweight championship rematch between Robinson and Carmen Basilio.

Robinson has been stripped of the crown by the National Boxing Assn.

He is angry at California because that state wouldn't let him bring in his own occasional promoter, Johnny Attell of New York. He's angry at the NBA for taking away his title.

He's angry at Jim Norris, former International Boxing Club chief, and Norris' successor, Truman Gibson, for booking a light heavyweight championship match between Archie Moore and Yvon Durelle at Montreal July 15. Robinson figures the Moore match belonged to him.

However, Robinson has a $300,000 offer, plus a percentage, from Madison Square Garden to defend his now rather nebulous title against Basilio, with the match to be promoted in Los Angeles or elsewhere, but not in New York.

Stengel Claims Yankees Look Like Old Team

KANSAS CITY (AP) — "We looked like the Yankees of old for a couple of innings," chortled Manager Casey Stengel Wednesday night after New York had won a second straight game from the Kansas City Athletics.

"But that left-hander (Bud Daley) cooled us off pretty quick," he added thoughtfully. The Yanks won 7-4 but Daley shut them out on two singles over the last six innings.

Did he think his flu-ridden world champions were back on the track and ready to move out of an embarrassing seventh place in the American League standings?

"Well, we can hope so. You might say I didn't know we had so many people worrying about us. I'm very happy to have these two games before we go back to the big city. We don't want all those columnists to count us out yet," Stengel replied with a wry smile.

Shown a news story in which Cleveland's general manager, Frank Lane, said his club can take the Yankees — with a few hits thrown in — Casey said:

"Well, he's up there, so I guess he can talk. What he says about the way his club has played is true. We will see if they can keep it up."

Four Marks Fall As Pintos Sweep Tri-County Meet

In the process of running away with the Tri-County Conference track championship, the California Pintos established four new records in the 14-event meet at Versailles Tuesday night.

Coach Danny Williams' Pintos racked up 59 points in winning hands down. Camdenton chalked up 21-¾ points; Eldon, 21¼; Stover, 20¼; Versailles, 14¼, and Tip-ton, 11.

Louis Gabert's 11-foot-2 set a new pole vault record; Denzil Roll trimmed the mile mark, traveling the distance in an impressive 4:54.2; and Larry Dunham raised the standards for both the high and low hurdles with 15.5 and 21.5, respectively.

Claims Patterson Will Take Johansson

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Eddie Machen predicts Ingemar Johansson will be "running like a thief against Patterson, always looking to throw that one big punch."

Machen knows first hand of the Swede's big punch, since he lost his status as No. 1 challenger when Johansson knocked him out in the first round in Sweden. That bout put Ingemar in line for the heavyweight title shot against Patterson.

"I think Patterson will win," Machen told newsmen. "But if Johansson gets to him, he could knock him out. I doubt if he can get to him. Patterson is awfully fast."

Machen has opened training here for a May 20 bout at the Cow Palace against Rueben Vargas, Richmond, Calif.

Walk Out in Disgust

MONCTON, New Brunswick, (AP) — The Elmwood School girls team walked off the diamond after five innings of a softball game Wednesday. Nobody could blame them. They were behind Notre Dame School 116-19.

Formal Dress Is Worn By TV Pickets

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Striking members of the National Assn. of Broadcast Employees and Technicians picketed the Moulin Rouge in Hollywood for the TV Emmy awards—but observed niceties of dress.

Invitations to the show specified black tie.

Three of the pickets, carrying "unfair" placards, were dressed in tuxedos, complete with black homburgs and black ties.

There was no disturbance when members of the Academy crossed the picket lines, but one of the Emmy winners had to send his wife in to accept his award.

He was Bill Wallace, who won an Emmy for best live camera work on the "An Evening With Fred Astaire" show. Bud Yorkin, director of the show, said Wallace would not cross the picket line. He is a member of the union.

Fourteen striking technicians also paraded outside the Ziegfeld theater in New York, scene of the eastern phase of the ceremonies.

Part of the show originated from the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, and pickets also appeared there.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon entered the hotel before the pickets arrived. He appeared on the show as scheduled. House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) and Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) decided against appearing on the program after learning it was being picketed.

To Keep Practicing

ROME (AP)—The physician to Pope Pius XII, who sold an account of his patient's death agony, has won the right to continue practicing medicine—for the time being, at least.

The Central Commission for the Practice of Sanitary Professions Wednesday annulled the Rome Medical Assn. expulsion of Prof. Riccardo Galeazzi-Lisi, 67, who was the late Pope's personal physician.

But the appeal board said its action was based on technical errors in the association's ruling and that the doctors could reopen the case.

The commission did not go into the question of whether Galeazzi-Lisi violated professional ethics in selling a graphic, detailed account of the Pope's death to several Italian newspapers.

Key Men Missing

Convention Viewers May See New Set of Characters

WASHINGTON (AP) — Television viewers of the 1960 national political conventions may have to become accustomed to a new cast of characters in key convention posts.

Reps. Sam Rayburn (D-Tex), Joseph W. Martin Jr. (R-Mass.) and John McCormack (D-Mass.) may be missing from the glare of the camera spotlights.

Rayburn, Speaker of the House, has presided over the past three Democratic Conventions.

Martin, a 74-year-old veteran of many political wars, has wielded the gavel as permanent chairman of the past five Republican National conventions.

The 67-year-old McCormack, graduate of "the Boston school of practical politics," has headed the

Sales Tax Bill Wins Preliminary Approval

JEFFERSON CITY — (AP) — A bill to increase the Missouri sales tax from 2 to 2½ per cent won preliminary approval of the state Senate at its first night meeting of the 1959 Legislature.

The standing vote advancing it to position for passage was 17-8.

The measure would raise an estimated 26 million dollars a year and is designed to raise more money for schools although the tax would not be earmarked.

The voters would have a chance to pass on the increase at the general election in November of 1960.

Included in the bill is a bracket system for collecting the 2½ per cent—nothing on purchases of less than 21 cents, one cent on sales of 21-50 cents, two cents on sales of 51-99 cents, three cents on sales of 91 cents—1.20 and 2½ per cent over that.

platform committee of three of the past four Democratic National conventions.

But the three House members may not occupy those spots in 1960 when the Democrats meet in Los Angeles and the Republicans in Chicago.

Rayburn remarked at a recent Washington social affair that he might not be chairman in 1960, that he might want to make a nominating speech. As neutral referees, convention chairmen can not make nominating speeches.

Rayburn attached no significance to the remark, which he said was made in jest. Whether he would accept the post of chairman if it were offered to him, he hasn't said. Some members of the democratic national committee are known to favor for the chairmanship someone less inclined than Rayburn to conciliate the party's southern wing.

A question mark has been posed over Martin's possible role in 1960 by his ouster from the party leadership in the House. He was replaced as floor leader last January by Charles A. Halleck of Indiana. Martin hasn't commented publicly on his 1960 prospects. He reportedly would accept the post if it were offered to him.

McCormack definitely does not want to head the platform committee.

"I'm not sure it will be offered to me," he said. "I don't want it. I would be most reluctant to take it. I didn't want it the last time but they drafted me."

"But I'll tell you one thing," he added. "The biggest mistake that could be made would be to pick anybody except Sam Rayburn for the permanent chairmanship."

Hall of Honor Dedication This Friday

The Hall of Honor of the University of Missouri School of Journalism will be officially dedicated during 1959 Journalism Week with ceremonies Friday, May 8, immediately following presentation of Missouri Honor Awards for Distinguished Service to Journalism. Stanley Fike, former Missouri publisher, will officiate with a short talk. The presentation session will start at 2:30 p.m., in Jay H. Neff Auditorium. First to receive recognition in the Hall of Honor will be more than 100 School of Journalism medalists covering the past 30 years, and other distinguished journalists whose photographs will be on display in Neff Auditorium for the dedication and thereafter, according to Dean Earl F. English of the School. Additional selections for the Hall of Honor will be made annually.

Among those elected to the Hall of Honor is George H. Scruton, Jr., editor of The Sedalia Democrat - Capital and winner of the 1951 Missouri Honor Award for Distinguished Service in Journalism.

While for the present the Hall of Honor will be centered in Neff Auditorium, Dean English said it is hoped that eventually a special building will be made available for the Hall of Honor and for the Freedom of Information Center, which has temporary space in Walter Williams Hall. The Freedom of Information Center also was established during the school's observance of its 50th Anniversary.

Fike, now of Washington, D.C., is administrative assistant to U.S. Senator Stuart Symington, and is past president of the Missouri Press Association.

Free Press a Bulwark Against Communism

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — With the possible exception of religion, a free press is the only impregnable bulwark against communism, Francis M. Flynn, publisher of the New York Daily News, said last night.

Flynn spoke at a University of Missouri journalism week dinner.

"Without a free press, communism could sell its phony philosophy more rapidly," Flynn said.

"My generation prays that the incoming class of newsmen will continue to serve as guardians against this encroachment."

A 1924 graduate of the Missouri journalism school, Flynn received two citations for his work as chairman of the finance committee for the 50th anniversary of the school.

Switchman May Have More Honors Coming

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Another honor probably will come to Thomas E. Connors, the 22-year-old Rock Island Railroad switchman who rescued three girls from the Kansas River Saturday night.

The president of the Missouri Safety Council, Joseph R. Hogsett, recommended to the National Safety Council that Connors be awarded the president's medal—given for an outstanding act of heroism in saving human life.

Connors pulled the three girls from the river after a car plunged off the 23rd Street viaduct. A fourth girl died in the accident.

Downing B. Jenks, president of the Rock Island, offered Connors

Red Radio Says Ike's Test Plan Dangerous

MOSCOW (AP)—Moscow radio today called President Eisenhower's plan to ban nuclear weapon tests up to altitudes of 30 miles a "dangerous halfway measure" and said the Soviet Union could not agree to it.

The broadcast used stronger language than Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev did on April 25 when he said Eisenhower's proposal "will not solve the problem." He did not reject it outright.

a scholarship after learning the switchman was forced to give up college because of financial difficulties.

James Denny Named Round Table Director

James T. Denny of Sedalia was named a director of the Missouri Life Leaders Roundtable, at the organization's first meeting, held at Lake Ozark April 24.

Denny is also qualified for the Missouri Life Insurance Leaders Club.

The Round Table was formed at the meeting, to honor and serve those members who have met the minimum production qualifications that would indicate they are leaders in their field. They are to meet periodically to exchange ideas and promote a professional attitude toward themselves and their clients.

Western Horsemen Attend Club Show

Western Horsemen of Sedalia attended the Benjamin Saddle Club Show on Saturday and Sunday, May 2 and 3.

Hair Care
Never Takes A Vacation

With the advent of warm weather, most of us take off on vacation, on camping trips, off to bungalows for the summer or just on weekend jaunts to the beach or lakeside.

Though a woman's grooming habits are slightly more relaxed during the leisurely summer months, they are never dropped. In fact, the coiffure or just plain condition of her hair in summer needs more attention than during the rest of the year. Usually a woman can keep her hair attractive with little more than a good shampooing or a quick-setting with a bit of cologne.

Those who travel will find a traveling hair dryer which folds compactly away into its own carrying case a jewel to have along. Summer hair care and grooming hints from the John Oster Home Service Institute will aid vacationers and stay-at-home with their hair problems.

Summer sun takes its toll of natural hair oils. Protect your hair when exposed directly to the sun for great lengths of time. Attractive beach hats make this no problem at the seaside and a gay, tropically colored scarf takes care of long, sun-exposed periods on the tennis court, hiking or picnicking.

A really good bathing cap is a sound investment. Brushing is even more necessary in warm weather than during cooler months since perspiration and a constantly hatless head attract dirt and dust. Also, the stimulation keeps the natural oil supply of the hair flowing. This helps to counteract the drying effects of summer sun, salt water dousing and exposure.

No matter how much protection the hair gets, it is still difficult to keep it looking soft and lustrous. A good hot oil treatment will do wonders after an outdoor weekend. A fast, easy way to handle this is with a dryer hood. Use a good lanolin dressing or apply olive oil on the hair and scalp. Sit for five or ten minutes under a hood with the airjet set at hot and your hair is re-vitalized.

Inviting Pool Color
Adds a True Luxury

Swimming in your own pool on a hot summer day is one of life's true luxuries and if the pool is painted an inviting color, or colors, the enjoyment is heightened. Cool lake-blue, and seagreen are the two most popular basic colors for swimming pools. Many pool owners introduce a second color for both functional and aesthetic purposes.

The second color — sunshine yellow or midnight blue are popular — can be used for the scum gutter or the walkways beside the pool. Painting the shallow end to contrast in hue with the deep the bus before it ran onto a dock and drove it instead down a boat launching slip where the water was only seven feet deep. Had it gone off the dock it would have plunged into 30 feet of water. (AP Wirephoto).

end is especially practical when there are small children in the family. Stripes in contrasting color painted vertically on the sides to indicate different depths is another wise precaution.

Besides making the pool more attractive to swimmers and sunbathers, a coat of paint looks cleaner, and really is more sanitary. Consult your paint dealer on the type of coating you should use — you will find he has special

Listing Gear Is Important

Seventy-five million Americans will take to the road this summer on vacation trips. If you plan to be among them, plan ahead for more fun.

A week or so before leaving, make a check list of all items you will need. Keep it in a handy spot where you can add to it or check things off as you pack them. To avoid clutter, try hooking a shoe bag over the back seat to hold maps, small toys, sun glasses and other paraphernalia.

Plan your car wardrobe with care. For the youngsters, choose loose-fitting garments that won't bind. The color should not show spots too readily and the fabric should be crease resistant. Take sweaters for early morning or late evening driving. The same basic idea in clothes is good for adults, too. For the lady of the house, a pair of Bermuda shorts with a matching .erskirt which can be put on when leaving the car is a handy traveler. Men's slacks come in cool summer fabrics which resist rumpling.

Nothing is quite so refreshing as a cool drink of water, so take along a thermos jug and plenty of paper cups. Experienced travelers say that a short stop to stretch legs and have a drink of water will reduce car fatigue, make driving safer. A plastic bag in the car holds used paper cups until you reach a roadside trash container.

Many people like to take a thermos of hot water, too, for a quick cup of instant coffee. Or save time by preparing it in advance.

Harmony Women Hold Missionary Union Meeting

The Harmony Associational Women's Missionary Union met at the County Line Baptist Church Tuesday, April 28, with Mrs. Bill Reed presiding. The meeting was opened by singing the hymn "For the Beauty of the Earth," following with a prayer by Mrs. Parsons. The program theme was "Now It Is Spring." Mrs. Pippen gave a devotional "Springtime in Our Hearts". Roll call was answered by each. The W.M.U. president reported on the Annie Armstrong offering. An umbrella for Spring Showers was made as each organization who met their goal covered a section with lavender material and those not reaching their goal using white. The offering for this year was $1647.53.

Mrs. Reed gave the Mission Study Report "More Daylight for Union." Mrs. Dryden, enlistment chairman, gave "New Plants to Nourish," emphasizing the Big Sister plan. Mrs. Neill reported on the importance of the Madge N. Truex Fund and what had been accomplished through it.

As each officer gave their report they filled a picnic basket with a food representing an important vitamin essential to good growth. Rev. Tucker dismissed with a prayer.

The meeting recessed for the noon hour and a covered dish luncheon.

The afternoon session was opened by singing the hymn "New Life for You" and the watchwords repeated in unison. A skit "What Is Your Name" was directed by Edna Abney, publicity chairman. Those participating were: Mrs. Kenneth Wilborn, Miss Elsie Thomas and Mrs. E. E. Campbell.

Conferences were held by each department chairman. Problems were solved and many new ideas exchanged.

Mrs. Glen Miller, historian, presented "Through an Open Window" Mrs. Dorothy Owen sang "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" accompanied by

Mrs. Joe Williams. Those who attended the State W.M.U. Convention held at Kansas City April 2 and 3 told the highlights of the meeting and many interesting things about the missionary speakers. The convention theme was "Love Demands." The meeting closed with prayer. Total registration was 54 members.

Paint Will Renew Life Of Old Chair

If your old wooden, metal, canvas or wicker chairs, chaises and tables are less than perfect; if they're chipped, marred, or just dreary, don't despair! A coat of paint will restore them to new life and beauty.

There are two schools of thought on color for garden or lawn furniture use. There are those who choose subtle nature hues that blend with the landscape and others who like gay, lively colors in keeping with the lightheartedness of the summer season. One school paints all the pieces in the same color, while another chooses a variety of different hues.

Whatever the color scheme for lawn decor, remember some basic painting rules. Buy a quality enamel, varnish or stain of the right type for the job you have to do. Your paint dealer will advise you. Especially avoid the use of house paint formulated to chalk. This will rub off on pretty summer dresses. Apply the proper coating to a properly prepared surface—that means one that is clean, free from any old scaling or cracked paint and not glossy. A new coat adheres best to a roughened-up surface that provides "tooth."

Unpainted wooden furniture must be sanded and have an enamel undercoat under the exterior enamel topcoat. Where bare wood shows on old furniture this should be touched up with undercoat before the whole piece receives a new coat of color. A final coating of spar varnish is added protection.

Metal furniture must be completely rust-free before new color is applied. When the rust has been removed with steel wool or sandpaper, touch up with a rust-resistant primer before applying the final finish.

When aluminum furniture pits or becomes mottled, remove the

Attorney General To Oppose Repeal Of Presidential Term Ban

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican congressional leaders announced after a conference with President Eisenhower today that Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers will oppose repeal of the constitutional ban on more than two terms for presidents.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, GOP leaders in the two houses, said Rogers plans to tell the Senate Judiciary Committee he is against scrapping the 22nd Amendment.

Eisenhower indicated at a news conference Tuesday that he also now is against repeal of the ban. He said that "on balance, the amendment gives greater assurance to America than its repeal would."

Second Snark Missile Completes Test Flight

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A combat model of a powerful Snark guided missile reportedly completed a successful intercontinental-range test flight today—the second in a month.

The sleek missile roared aloft late Tuesday night and eight hours later, it was learned, dropped a dummy warhead on an impact area near Ascension Island, 5,500 miles from the launching site.

It was one of the final tuneups for the 69-foot Northrop weapon before it becomes operational with troops. The missile has been fired more than 70 times from the Cape.

The Snark, first U.S. weapon capable of carrying a nuclear warhead more than 5,500 miles, is expected to be deployed with troops soon at Presque Isle, Maine.

extraneous material from the surface with wire-brush or sandpaper. Then apply a metal primer before finishing with an exterior metal enamel.

Bicycle Aids In Whipping Travel Costs

The high cost of traveling is being whipped by vacationers and weekend tourists with the help of an old standby — the bicycle.

Long trips in a short period of time are not possible for bike riders. But the delight of shorter, more leisurely ventures into the countryside are.

Today's middleweight bikes are suited for ventures such as these. Usually equipped with gears, they are sturdy enough for the most difficult terrain, and light enough to pedal for hours without fatigue.

The average bicyclist should work himself into condition gradually for longer rides by daily jaunts, gradually increasing the distance traveled.

Equipment for bike hikes and picnics with a same-day return planned is simple. A basket or saddlebags carry the conventional picnic lunch, blanket or tablecloth, a camera and other items.

On longer trips, consider the weight factor. Light, versatile clothing such as a windbreaker, long and short sleeved shirts, shorts, slacks, woolen socks, head covering, sun glasses, minimum toilet articles, lightweight rain cape or coat, spare tire and tube, pump, first aid kit, and a flashlight.

A lightweight tent is necessary along with cooking utensils of the mess kit type, canteen, can opener and a supply of staples, and a pair of blankets or a sleeping bag.

Items such as dry soups, instant coffee, powdered milk, dehydrated potatoes, instant cereals and other recently developed foods insure a proper diet with a minimum of weight. And a lightweight camp stove is vastly superior for cooking than campfires.

If a group is making the trip, each person should be responsible for part of the planning. One should select camp sites, for example. Another should do the cooking, and still another should use a map and select the next day's route, halting places and destination.

Dad Can't Read, Either

Frequently heard are complaints by adults that today's school children not only can't spell but are poor readers.

Youngsters may well ask their seniors how come so many mature automobile drivers can't read the eight "No Turn" signs at Third and Ohio.

So when someone talks about how much we need more scientists and engineers in our competition with the Russians, maybe first we'd better fill the need for more people who can read.

Of course there are those persons who can read but just won't do it because of laziness or stubbornness. Consider the millions who buy manufactured products all the way from medicine to hair curling exilirs on the packages of which the manufacturer has printed specific directions—how to use. Like many housewives they ignore directions of the recipe.

Then there's the situation in another state which, like Missouri already has done, decided not to issue new metal automobile license plates but simply to send out small paper tabs with a plastic cement. Once attached, they can't be removed without ruining them. This was publicized along with instructions to motorists, as simple as this: clean the license plate, peel off a thin paper layer covering the adhesive, don't use water, press the tab hard against the plate on the left hand side just below the hole.

What happened?

A few thousand people threw the tabs away, thinking they were of no value. Hundreds of others sent them back and wrote asking for their "new plates."

Untold numbers wrote or telephoned saying the tabs "curled up when the water was applied." Many others attached them in the wrong place and then destroyed them trying to get them off.

What's this about keeping abreast of the Russians?

Drama Over Man's Right to Survive

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Drama lurks in peculiar places in Washington. The sight-seeing tourist doesn't notice it, nor even the average resident, but it's there—sombre, sometimes incoherent, gripping drama. It pertains to the most sacred of all problems—man's right to live.

Scene No. 1 of the drama is taking place just across the Potomac whose usually slow-moving bosom now swells with spring and whose banks are lined with lacelike willow trees. The Potomac has been majestically unconcerned about man's right to live since before the days when George Washington built his home beside it. But on its west bank, in a pile of concrete called the Pentagon, Air Force scientists have been very much concerned with man's will to live, and have finally decided that man must be told the truth about the danger of accidental atomic explosions.

Hitherto the American military have discounted the danger of accidental explosions. When the Danes refused to permit our atomic sub to enter the Harbor of Copenhagen, the danger was discontinued.

Now a complete reversal has been made. An atomic sub, it's admitted, can blow up and spread radioactive poison. So can an atomic bomb, rocket, or missile.

Easy to Misfire

Greatest danger comes from smaller warheads, such as those carried on short-range missiles, the Corporal and Honest John. Unfortunately, these are not only easiest to misfire, but are handled by the least skilled.

Air Force strategists now admit this danger, furthermore believe the time has come to warn the American people. Reason for the reversal is fear that an accidental explosion might panic the nation into war. Should a bomb explode accidentally, the public could be panicked into believing it came from Russia, and nuclear war could engulf the world in a matter of minutes.

Or some beserk soldier or scientist could detonate a bomb which could bring on war. Or some Soviet scientist with a grudge against the Kremlin could launch a missile against the Kremlin which might be blamed on the United States.

These are the dramatic, awesome problems faced by Pentagon strategists in considering man's will to survive.

Scene 2 in the drama takes place in the high-ceilinged, oak-paneled hearing room of the Senate interstate commerce committee. Two scientists, also concerned about man's right to survive, are testifying against the confirmation of Adm. Lewis Strauss to be secretary of commerce.

They helped to make these terrible weapons of mass death, and are fearful that their handiwork will eventually destroy mankind.

Sen. John Pastore, Rhode Island Democrat, sits in the chairman's seat and badgers them. He will hardly let them finish a sentence before he fires a question—or usually a rebuttal statement in Admiral Strauss's defense. The man he's defending, former head of one

Guest Editorial

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR: See the U.S.A. — A kind of wrap-around windshield with wheels is now being forecast by, not surprisingly, an American glass company executive, Dr. George B. Watkins. He reports that a glass-bodied car can be molded from a strong transparent laminate.

Such a rolling picture window would have some obvious advantages: No more craning the neck to find out whether that overhead traffic light has turned green. No more putting the top down for sunny weather. No wondering if the antenna is up or down.

But the glass car is going to need some awfully big sun visors. And service station windshield cleaners aren't going to like it. Nor are summer drivers with leather seat covers, clothes-changers at the beach, or people who collect rags in their trunk.

Anyone who has traveled in a vistadome train knows that Dr. Watkins has something. The only trouble is that, like the picture-window house, the picture-window car may fall victim to its own popularity.

We are concerned that from the same miles of houses which now stare balefully at each other through their front-and-center windows there will one day issue forth thousands of glass cars hurtling toward one grand transparent traffic jam on the expressways of 1975.

of the great investment houses of Wall Street, smiles. He is cocky and confident, as the son of an Italian immigrant, now a senator, brusquely comes to his defense.

What Man Created

One of the scientists, Dr. David Inglis of the government's Argonne laboratory, fumbles for words. He tries to explain his fears of hydrogen warfare. We should have waited to make sure Russia was really going to build the H-bomb before going ahead with this terrible weapon. Obviously Dr. Inglis is a man at home with scientific formulas, but completely at sea with words—especially when interrupted by senators.

"Trying to destroy a country by old-fashioned atomic bombs," he finally blurts out, "is much less dangerous than the trigger-happiness of the hydrogen age."

The senators pin him down as to whether he would let Russia get ahead of the United States. He writhes and fumbles for an answer. Of course not, he says, but, on the other hand—and he tries to explain the awful results of the war that could come from the weapon he's helped produce.

Was Elder Statesman Right?

He doesn't seem to remember, and the senators don't want to remember—if they ever knew—that such a distinguished elder statesman as Henry L. Stimson, a Republican serving in four cabinets, proposed that we give the atomic bomb to Russia—give it, not trade. And this was one month after Hiroshima.

Stimson had been secretary of war in the Taft cabinet, secretary of state in the Hoover cabinet, and then came back to serve under Roosevelt and Truman as secretary of war. He bowed out in October, 1945. Before he bowed out, he proposed in cabinet meeting that since Russia was sure to develop her own atomic bomb, we should give it to her as an ally and as a gesture which would help to head off a cutthroat arms race.

Otherwise, the man who had served under four presidents warned rivalry with Russia might well lead to a third world war. Stimson was overruled 7 to 3 by the Truman cabinet. And the drama of coping with man's right to survive in the race which has followed, now continues, in the Pentagon, in Senate hearing rooms, and elsewhere in Washington—as will be reported in future columns.

Control of Press

One of the first freedoms to be confiscated when communism takes control is the free press. The latest example of this is in Karachi, Pakistan. The government has taken over Pakistan's biggest chain of newspapers, the Pakistan Times group and dismissed the management.

The action was taken under the Security of Pakistan Act. Investigations showed, so the government charges, that the chain was receiving editorial guidance and financial assistance from foreign countries which was detrimental to the national interest. Although President Mohammed Ayub Khan did not specify the foreign interest, it was obvious that the influence was coming from the Soviet Union and Communist China.

The government's seizure of the papers was one way of getting rid of an undesirable influence, but it is hoped that the press will soon be restored to private ownership. Censorship even by a favorable government is not keeping the press free, even under the guise of a safety law.

Although polar bears do not hibernate, the female lies up in a snug den under the snow to produce her cubs.

The Robert Burns monument at Barre, Vt., is conceded to be one of the finest pieces of granite sculpture in the world.

Thought For Today

So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not. —Jonah 1:6.

Faith and the Family: 5

How to Keep Your Love Growing

By The Rev. William H. Genne
Director, Department of Family Life, National Council of Churches of Christ
(Written for NEA Service)

After the first bright days of the honeymoon many couples live in fear their love will die. They watch apprehensively for any sign that their partner is "taking them for granted." Any change in their relationship is resisted because it will destroy romance. They act as if marriage was a dull, drab plain of monotonous meaninglessness.

Often this very fear creates a tenseness that does make their relationship more difficult. Unless the evil spell is broken the marriage may go from bad to worse, confirming their fears. These are the sad and bitter folks who say, "I tell you marriage isn't all it is cracked up to be — and I know it."

Yesterday we talked about how to make families strong. Something more than strength is needed if our marriage is to have the joy and fulfillment that God intended it should have. We need an understanding of the true nature of love.

Love is a growing, changing experience. While it has many forms and expressions, it often will start as a gaily laughing and singing feeling. During courtship and engagement it intensifies its gaiety and joy until the couple can think of no greater happiness than to be together completely and forever in marriage.

But marriage is different from courting. It does bring the rewards of complete togetherness, but it also brings responsibilities. A living must be earned, a home must be tended, children must be cared for, and there is a certain sameness in routinely repeated tasks.

Brightness and warmth in love need not disappear. In fact, they may increase as when the big logs of a fire begin to burn after the crackling flames of the kindling have burned themselves out.

But it does mean that the fire must be fed with solid wood than kindling. Just so must the marriage be fed with really solid efforts in response to the increased responsibilities if love is to be kept alive and growing after the kindling of the courtship and honeymoon has burned itself out.

Happiness, as we said earlier in this series, does not come automatically. It is the by-product of the successful accomplishments of many tasks and the development of many skills. Only as individuals grow in skill and understanding do they gain the satisfying results that bring them happiness.

Dr. Jordan Says

Thumb-Sucking Dangers Are Often Exaggerated

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

Millions of people undoubtedly have worried about the thumb and finger-sucking in their infants. All kinds and methods and devices have been tried to break this habit. Many articles have appeared in the medical and dental literature, some suggesting that it is harmless, and others that it can cause trouble, particularly to the teeth.

It seems to me that there are so many of us who must have sucked our thumbs when we were little and yet have grown up into normal people that the fear is exaggerated.

In one recent report, based on a study of nearly three thousand infants and children, it was stated that parents should be reassured about the relative harmlessness of this habit.

Of the children studied, nearly one-half sucked their thumbs; the average age of stopping without treatment was just under 4 years, which is longer than the two-year limit which has sometimes been mentioned by others.

This report also stated that dentists claim that stopping the habit before the age of 4 is compatible with normal dental arch formation.

Another difficult problem has been submitted by a mother who says that her son was born with pyloric stenosis. She says that an operation was not performed and the child "outgrew" the difficulty by the age of 15 months. Now, at the age of 3 years, he gets attacks of diarrhea and she wonders whether there is any connection.

The pylorus is the lower opening of the stomach where the digestive contents empty from

Love, then, is more than emotion. It is the overwhelming desire and persistent effort of two people to create for each other the conditions under which each can become the person God meant him to be.

The key words in this definition of love are "to create for each other." They are based on the great spiritual truth, "He that loveth his life shall find it."

The man who can make a woman feel more happy to be a woman is truly a man indeed. He does not have to go around beating his chest to show how masculine he is.

A woman who can make a man feel more manly is truly a woman and does not need a lot of artificial aids to try to impress men of her femininity.

The conditions that make for the fulfillment of manhood, womanhood, and parenthood in the sight of God include the whole range of experiences.

The totality of life that we often mistakenly divide up into physical, mental, social, and spiritual can be infused and inspired by this kind of love of a man for a woman.

Such a love in marriage can mean years of increasing meaning, joy, and happiness. May this Family Week bring a growing awareness of God's purpose for love in your home.

A Need of Statesmanship

Farm Problem Is Common Failing of Both Parties

By JOSEPH A. DEAR
Of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Inability to cope with the "farm problem" is the common failing of both Republicans and Democrats.

Only the Korean War, and the consequent world-wide upsurge in farm prices, kept the Democrats from going over the precipice. The Republicans, with Agriculture Secretary Benson at the helm, have gone over. The "problem" is now harrowing.

By this June 30, Benson will have spent $31 billion as Secretary of Agriculture. That's more than all his predecessors spent in 97 years. And the worst is yet to come. Unless the pattern changes Benson probably will expend another $14 billion in his last two years.

To keep the record straight, it must be noted that some of this money will come back to the government. Some of the crops under loan, for example, will be sold on the market. But losses to the government under the Benson regime are staggering enough.

Last year Uncle Sam's farm price support program cost $1.1 billion, dead loss. That's more than that program cost during 20 years of Roosevelt and Truman.

Sad to relate this spending extravaganza has not made for a healthy agriculture economy. The American farmer has not enjoyed anything like a proportionate share of the boom. During the past six years non-farm personal income rose 43 per cent. Farm income rose less than 20 per cent.

The fix of the farmer is the result of several hard facts. Production is increasing faster than population. And per capita consumption is practically constant.

This inelasticity of demand magnifies the impact of even slight surplus. Thus, according to figures cited by Robert Lewis in The Progressive, an increase of two per cent in the food supply will depress retail prices 10 per cent.

Even the effect of this depression is magnified for the farmer. The food dollar is split about 60 to 40, with the farmer getting the short end of the split. When retail prices fall, the farmer absorbs the cut alone. So a 10 per cent drop in retail price is a 25 per cent blockbuster for him.

The reason for farmer acceptance of high government support programs is obvious once it is recognized that the support price sets the market price. Thus when Benson sought to correct the surplus problem by lowering supports, he was attempting the impossible. For many farmers, the cut in the support price was a cut in income. To compensate, the farmer increased production. The mountainous wheat surplus—there's a two-year supply in storage—gives mute testimony to the futility of this approach.

It's the Law

NO TRESPASSING???

QUESTION: Is a fisherman trespassing if he wades and canoes down a stream which runs through another person's land?

FACTS: Ford Farmer had his land fenced and posted against "hunting, fishing and trespassing." Running through his land was Bass Crick, deep enough to float a canoe or a small rowboat, except in certain places where it was obstructed. "Fly" Fisher, who had a state fishing license, canoed through Farmer's land, sometimes carrying his canoe along the bank to avoid obstructions. He also stopped to camp on the bank and waded in the stream to fish. Farmer prosecuted Fisher for trespassing and asked the court to determine his rights.

DECISION: Farmer lost! The court held that since Bass Crick was ordinarily deep enough to float canoes and small boats, it was navigable and the public had the right to travel down it in this manner. The court also said that Farmer's rights to the banks of the stream were subject to ordinary necessities connected with the use of the stream by the public. However, the court pointed out Fisher would be responsible for any actual damage he might cause.
